Re: Ali Moore v. FirstService Residential New York, Inc. et al.
22-CV-10957 (LGS)

Dear Judge Schofield:

We represent defendants FirstService Residential New York, Inc. (“FirstService”) and Morningside Heights Housing Corporation (“Morningside”) (together “Defendants”) in the above-referenced action. Defendants’ motion to dismiss (“Motion”) is currently due by June 28, 2024 [Dkt. 175]. In accordance with Your Honor’s Individual Rules and Procedures for Civil Cases I.B.3, we respectfully request a fourteen (14) day extension of time to file the Motion. We request the time as a number of matters arose, both professional and personal, for the undersigned, who also is leaving the country this coming Monday, the 24th, not returning until July 4th. Thus, should the Court grant this request, Defendants will file on July 12th, plaintiff’s deadline will be August 9th, and Defendants’ reply will be due on August 30th. This is Defendants’ first such request. We did not confer with plaintiff as he is pro se and PACER provides no phone number or email.

Accordingly, Defendants respectfully request their time to answer, move, or otherwise respond to the complaint be extended thirty (30) days from the date of the Court’s order. This will affect no other deadlines. We thank the Court for its consideration of this application.

Yours very truly,

Mark A. Beckman
